

SOLUTION

Due Diligence Questionnaire Managed Services

Complete an essential third-party risk management task quickly with the highest possible response rates

Gathering intelligence from third parties is an integral component to an effective Third-Party Risk Management (TPRM) program. However, with third parties often under pressure to complete complex and repetitive onboarding questionnaires from multiple counterparties it is important they understand and prioritize providing your business with the accurate information that it needs – when it needs it.

Ethixbase360's Due Diligence Questionnaire Managed Services ensure that you optimize your TPRM program investment - maximizing the quantity, quality and timelines of third-party questionnaire responses. Managed services directly support your third parties with experienced analysts providing support in completing questionnaires in a timely and efficient manner. Additionally, valuable reporting helps to illustrate your business's commitment to key stakeholders by ensuring meaningful response rates, underpinning the value of the third-party risk management program.

MAXIMISE ACCURATE AND TIMELY QUESTIONNAIRE RESPONSES

Ethixbase360 allows your business to maximise third party response rates, ensuring accuracy and detailed insights for your TPRM program. Deploy our Managed Services to:

Leverage both the automated workflow and professionally-trained analysts to improve response quality and completion rates of due diligence questionnaires

Utilize a trained team of professionals will personally follow-up with recipients, ensuring information is captured accurately and in a timely manner

Deploy direct, personalized engagement with third parties that are not responding to automated requests or require direct assistance to complete the process

Comprehensive reporting, affording you deep insights into your Questionnaire and TPRM processes, further underscoring your business's dedication to compliance with your Board, stakeholders, and regulatory bodies

To learn more about the Ethixbase360 Due Diligence Questionnaire Managed Services speak to your dedicated Client Success Manager or contact us at marketing@ethixbase360.com